Thank you all for helping me with My LOWE family. Grandparents, parents, my brother and me and my children and grand children, 1st-2nd gr grandchildren. I have sent the early Lowe Books and should be at at the library but starting these Books 1-2-3-4-5

Bk 5 will be my father's brothers & sister's line. I started doing genealogy in 1969 and all my grand parents were gone but had other members of their's could get info from. Otherwise I worked at the court house and library and cemeteries to find info that I could.

I with others spent many a week at the Ft. Wayne, library, Salt Lake City library, Madison, WI library and many hours at Columbia, MO library just about every year from when I started. There was 4 of us who went to Iowa City every month during the good weather but now one has moved, one has passed and the other can't get out any longer and no fun to go by your self. So decided it was time to stop. This was before the internet so didn't have that to rely on but was just as well as have found a lot of wrong info on the internet. (I can't say mine is all right either) As much of it was not able to be proven for sure so just had to go by what we could find. But if anyone has proof of what you find is wrong in any of my books I would appreciate knowing it. We know every one is not 100% right as no one is perfect, even in research. New Data June 2017-GLT

So hope these books will be appreciated and enjoyed as much as I had putting them together. But I think now is the time to turn them over to someone else to enjoy as I can't get to the libraries any longer and only the internet to rely on and that isn't as much fun as going to the places where your ancestor's walked themselves.

You will notice different address's but the one above is correct.

State Signs Railroad Study Pact

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—A $231,974 contract for a major study by the Iowa Department of Transportation of Iowa's faltering railroad system was signed by federal and state officials Thursday.

Results of the study, the first of its kind funded by the U.S. Department of Transportation, will also be used by other states to help them determine their transportation needs and evaluate means of meeting them, said federal Railroad Administrator John Ingram.

Iowa was selected for the study, Ingram said, because "there is no question that the state government in Iowa understands the importance and effect of railroads on the state and will set a fine example for the rest of the nation."

Under terms of the contract, the Iowa DOT will conduct the study, subcontracting the research to Iowa State University and project management to the Iowa Commerce Commission.

"We feel Iowa will provide an excellent test bed for this type of planning as it is both similar to and different from other areas of the nation," Ingram said.

Ingram said there are no plans to subsidize or purchase branch line railroads in Iowa.

My Saviour, be Thou near me
When death is at my door;
Then let Thy presence cheer me,
Forsake me no more!
When soul and body languish,
Oh, leave me not alone,
But take away mine anguish
By virtue of Thine own!

Be Thou my Consolation,
And Shield, when I must die;
Remind me of Thy Passion
When my last hour draws nigh.
Mine eyes will then behold Thee,
Upon Thy cross shall dwell,
My heart by faith enfold Thee.
Who dieth thus dies well!

TOKYO (AP) — Lawmakers in Parliament's upper house battled early Saturday over a bill that would allow Japanese troops to be sent overseas for the first time since World War II.

Japan's Defense Agency chief, Sohei Miyashita, said Friday that if the bill passes, he intends to send a group of soldiers to join the United Nations' peacekeeping operation in Cambodia.

The largest opposition party, the Socialists, pledged to fight the long-debated bill, saying it violates Japan's constitutional ban on using force to settle international disputes.

The bill would create a 2,000-man corps for U.N. peacekeeping operations. It was passed by an upper house committee early Friday after a chaotic 16-hour session.

The session in the full house began after midnight Friday. A vote on the bill was delayed by Socialist lawmakers, who called for votes on other issues and shuffled slowly to the podium to cast their ballots — a delaying tactic called "cow-walking."

The governing Liberal Democrats hold a fragile majority coalition in the upper chamber with two moderate opposition parties that favor the bill.

Riot victims will get food stamps

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The federal government settled a class-action lawsuit Friday by agreeing to provide emergency food stamps for victims of last month's riots.

THE FUNERAL SERVICE

A pall may be placed upon the coffin

The ceremonies or tributes of social or fraternal societies have no place within the service of the church.

At the entrance of the Church the congregation stands as the family enters.

The minister meets the coffin, the pallbearers and the bereaved at the entrance of the church.

P: Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the source of all mercy and the God of all consolation. He comforts us in all our sorrows so that we can comfort others in their sorrows with the consolation we ourselves have received from God.

C: Thanks be to God.

P: When we were baptized in Christ Jesus, we were baptized into his death. We were buried therefore with Him by Baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live a new life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his.

the congregation may be seated

The Scripture

The Gospel

THE SERMON

The Hymn (or solo)

THE CREED (Congregation Stands)

P: God has made us his people through our Baptism into Christ. Living together in trust and hope, we confess our faith,

C: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended into hell
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
The holy catholic Church,
The communion of saints,
The forgiveness of sins,
The resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

THE PRAYERS

P: Let us Pray.

Almighty God, you have knit your chosen people together in one communion, in the mystical body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Give to your whole Church in heaven and on earth your light and your peace.

C: Hear us, Lord.

P: Grant that all who have been baptized into Christ's death and resurrection may die to sin and rise to newness of life and that through the grave and gate of death
we may pass with him to our joyful resurrection.

C: Hear us, Lord.

P: Grant to us who are still in our pilgrimage, and who walk as yet by faith, that your Holy Spirit may lead us in holiness and righteousness all our days.

C: Hear us, Lord.

P: Grant to your faithful people pardon and peace, that we may be cleansed from all our sins and serve you with a quiet mind.

C: Hear us, Lord.

P: Grant to all who mourn a sure confidence. In your loving care, that, casting all their sorrow on you, they may know the consolation of your love.

C: Hear us, Lord.

P: Give courage and faith to those who are bereaved, that they may have strength to meet the days ahead in the comfort of a holy and certain hope, and in the joyful expectation of eternal life with those they love.

C: Hear us, Lord.

P: Help us, we pray in the midst of things we cannot understand, to believe and trust in the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, and the resurrection of life everlasting.

C: Hear us, Lord.

P: Grant us grace to entrust _____ to your never-failing love which sustained him/her in this life. Receive him/her into the arms of your mercy, and remember him/her according to the favor you bear for your people.

C: Hear us, Lord.

P: God of all grace, you sent your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ to bring life and immortality to light. We give thanks because by his death, Jesus destroyed the power of death and by his resurrection has opened the kingdom of heaven to all believers. Make us certain that because he lives we shall live also and that neither death nor life, nor things present nor things to come shall be able to separate us from your love which is in Christ Jesus our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit one God, now and forever.

Re: Floyd Lowe Estate

Dear Ms. Treadway:

We are in receipt of your letter dated March 8, 1992, requesting copies of the above noted estate and other relevant papers. We do have the above noted estate and have calculated the cost of copying same to be $30.00. This estate is on microfilm and would have to be copied from a reel of film.

Also, we do not have power of attorney forms filed in this office. You have to send a request to the County Recorder for that information.

If you would like us to forward to you copies of said file, please forward $25.00, as we are holding your $5.00 for further instructions.

Look forward to hearing from you in the near future.

Sincerely,

Janice E. Knutson

Dear Janice,

Thank you for your letter regarding the estate of Floyd Lowe dec'd 1973. However I feel you don't want to give this info out or you wouldn't charge $30.00 for one document. The most I have ever paid for probate record is $1.00 a page and very few more then 6-7 pages and it is usually less when copies from microfilm. I would be happy to pay a reasonable fee but to me this is not. You can keep the $5 for your time in answering my letters.

But I would appreciate if you would send me the microfilm number and the book and page number the estate is recorded so I can put that with my family genealogy and later down the road of 50 years or so if someone is looking for information on their ancestors, at least that will be recorded. Floyd is my Uncle and I have the records of all my other Aunts and Uncles and wanted his record to complete the family history documents.

Would it be possible to see the records if I came there to the court house?

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

Re: Floyd Lowe Estate

Dear Ms. Treadway:

Thank you for your letter of March 13, 1992. We will retain the $5.00 check sent earlier for the efforts we made in the search for above noted records. Our usual fee for said search is $6.00. We did find the above noted estate on microfilm and counted the pages in order to give you an idea for the cost. We charge $1.00 per page for microfilm copies. This is under the direction of our District Court Administrator's office. The estate consisted of 27 pages. The additional $3.00 was to cover mailing and postage.

We are sorry you were unhappy with our response. Our rates are set by administrative branches above us, and we have no option but to comply. Some offices will not even make an effort to search information without the correct payment of fees in advance. If you do not want the entire probate records, you will have to specify which ones you would want. Your initial letter requested copies of all testate and intestate papers. We have no way of knowing which specific information you are seeking. The quote for above noted probate was based on that request. Our records are open to the public and you are welcome to come and look at them.

Sincerely,

JANICE E. KNUTSON

When she wrote the 4th of June she said they were getting ready to go to Oakland, Iowa for a family reunion with Mervin's cousins on his Mothers side of family. All the Aunts and Uncles were dead except one who was in a nursing home and she doesn't know anyone. Several of the cousins also are deceased.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures. He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou annointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

d considers expansion

Flurey said the south plant is out of room and running at capacity. An expansion would also include the relocation of the entrance to the plant to the north of the pond, which the supervisors agreed would be more safe than the current hillside entrance.

The supervisors indicated they favored rezoning and would start the legal process. The board voted to have the Humboldt County Zoning Board meet as soon as possible to consider the zoning change.

In other action, the board tabled action on bids for re-

The engineer's estimate for 36" tile was $18,500. The lone bid came from Redings Gravel and Excavating for $27,560.

A representative from Redings said the engineer's estimate only covered the cost of materials, and not labor.

Engineer Ray Schlotfeldt said they have been having trouble getting bidders for various projects in the area because contractors are busy.

The supervisors agreed to check with landowners who would be paying the bill before making a decision.

Supervisors Gary Kuehnast and Keith O'Donnell reported on a meeting they had with the Dakota City Council about the future of the former county maintenance facility in Dakota City.

The supervisors said Dakota City is very interested in obtaining the property from the county and agreed to have it appraised. The supervisors will also have an appraisal done. When the appraisals are completed, the two groups

Your Birthday

Tuesday, March 12, 1996

You may find the kind of relationship you've yearned for in the year ahead. Generally speaking, you could be quite fortunate when dealing with others on a one-to-one basis.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) You already know what you want, and you will know how to achieve this objective today. However, you might not make the required effort. Try to patch up a broken romance? The Astro-Graph Matchmaker can help you understand what to do to make the relationship work. Mail $2.75 to Matchmaker, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 1758, Murray Hill Station, New York, NY 10156.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Play it safe today and don't agree too hastily to something you haven't analyzed from every angle. A few pitfalls may lurk in the shadows.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) If you are formulating a good idea, you should not discuss it with outsiders. An associate's negativity might cause you to make an unwise alteration.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Currently, an associate may be taking his role in a collective endeavor more seriously than you are taking yours. You should both try to get on the same page.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Only your best efforts will be acknowledged and rewarded today. If you consciously perform below your standards, don't expect accolades or bonuses.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Avoid pressing your luck in a foolish fashion today. Do not take financial risks or encourage others to do so. You will not have good luck in either instance.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) It will not be wise to try to resolve problems between you and your mate in the presence of outsiders today. You both may say or do things you'll regret.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Others may think you are all talk and no action today. Finish your initial tasks first and yak about them only if time permits.

SAGITTARIUS (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) You may feel pang of guilt later today if you purchase something that costs more than you know you should spend. Keep an eye on your budget.

SCORPIO (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Demands imposed by others may restrict your independence today. However, instead of making a big deal about it, do the best you can with the tools at hand.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Think realistically today and try to see things as they are, not as you wish them to be. You can overcome adverse conditions by addressing them directly.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Regardless of what you buy today, check each item carefully and make sure you're getting what you pay for. Someone may try to swindle you.

Lawmakers Leave Contentious Issues Until After Break

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP) — At the midway mark of Missouri's legislative session, many of the most contentious issues still await debate.

As lawmakers departed last week for their annual spring break, they left after the debate agendas bills about abortion, concealed guns and various measures to cut Missouri's taxes.

All of these are likely to cause a debate clog in a session which until now has moved relatively smoothly.

So far, the Senate has passed and sent 80 bills to the House. And the House, after delaying work a week to elect a new speaker, has approved and dispatched 58 bills to the Senate.

Now that the House leadership squabbles are over, "it seems everyone has had a good attitude of getting down to work," said Speaker Steve Gaw, D-Moberly.

"I hope we can continue that attitude," Gaw said.

Last year, debate about concealed guns and anti-abortion legislation tied up lawmakers for weeks, before both bills ultimately failed.

The guns measure died in the last session's final minutes of Senate debate, and pro-choice Gov. Mel Carnahan vetoed the abortion legislation.

This year, tax proposals have also had drawn spirited debate as they wind slowly through the Legislature.

"There is some concern about whether we can get any kind of agreement," Gaw said about the tax cut plan that holds the No. 2 slot on the House debate calendar.

The House is considering a plan to cut the state sales tax on food from 4.225 cents on the dollar to 2.475 cents. The bill is aimed at keeping state revenues from exceeding a constitutional lid.

But the tax-cutting bill probably won't be debated soon, Gaw said. Instead, House members will return from break to continue working on Carnahan's proposed $13.7 billion state budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

That could trigger a debate about whether abortion provider Planned Parenthood should get state family planning money. Last year, anti-abortion lawmakers — who then and now hold a House majority — voted to keep money from Planned Parenthood. They also staged an unusual House filibuster last year to push other parts of their agenda.

In the Senate, meanwhile, returning lawmakers could take up a bill allowing most Missourians to carry concealed guns if they clear a background check and pay a fee. Similar legislation bogged down the Senate last year, before dying on the last day.

protection, said agency spokesman Kris Janowski.

On Sunday, a mother and her two children stood outside one burning building, weeping. French NATO troops at first stood and watched, then tried to put out the blaze with fire extinguishers when more troops arrived and orders apparently were changed.

A man who left the building carrying only a briefcase said his family had already left Ljiljda, but he had stayed to "see for myself what it is the world offers to Serbs who stay here."

Later, NATO troops escorted a fire truck from a nearby government-held suburb to help extinguish an apartment fire that threatened to engulf the entire building.

Bugarin Ljiljina, a 23-year-old former Serb soldier who lived there, watched helplessly.

"They (NATO) can't do anything about it," he said. "Their role is maybe to protect those who stay from Muslims, but from the Serbs, what can they do about it?"

In response, NATO, the U.N. civilian police, Bosnian Serbs and the Muslim-Croat federation agreed Sunday on steps to protect those remaining.

NATO and the U.N. police force said the U.N. High Commissioner for Refugees would set up "safe houses" in Ljiljda and Grahovica — the two Serb-held areas of Sarajevo.

jevo not yet transferred to federal control — for those Serbs wishing to stay. The "safe houses" would be protected by international police and NATO forces. Also, federation firefighters would enter the remaining Serb-held areas with NATO escort and protection.

The new policy was a shift for the 60,000-strong NATO-led force, which has previously rejected police-style duties for fear of getting drawn into conflict with the enemy sides.

Still, NATO officials said they lacked the manpower to enforce a proposed curfew, and acknowledged they could not provide security to individuals.

U.S. Adm. Leighton Smith, commander of NATO-led forces, said Serbs wishing to leave should do so. But Smith urged them to "recognize that the actions that some are taking now are clearly inflammatory, threaten their neighbors, and do great damage to the prospects for peace."

Bosnian Serb leader Momislav Krajisnik met with Smith late Sunday, and appealed to Serbs "not to burn their homes, and we also want them not to spur people to leave, if they do not want to."

TAIPEI, Taiwan (AP) — Warships from the U.S. Seventh Fleet staked out the international waters around Taiwan today, even as China warned the United States to stay out of its sovereignty dispute with the island.

Share prices plunged as investors grew alarmed over China's plans to follow up missile tests off Taiwan's main ports with live-ammunition war games off the island starting Tuesday.

Tensions between Taiwan and China are at their highest in 15 years, as China seeks to quell independence sentiment on the island with a military show of force.

Beijing considers Taiwan a renegade province to be retaken by force if necessary, and it wants Taiwanese voters to remember that when they go to the polls March 23.

Calling China's attempt to intimidate Taiwan "reckless," Secretary of State Warren Christopher announced the dispatch of a battle group led by the USS Independence.

The destroyer Hewitt and guided-missile frigate McCuskey joined the Independence north of Taiwan today, the Seventh Fleet said from Yokosuka, Japan. The guided-missile cruiser Bunker Hill took up a position south of the island to monitor China's missile tests, the Navy said.

The United States intended the warships to be "in a position to be helpful, if they need to be," Christopher said Sunday on NBC's "Meet the Press."

In Beijing, Chinese Foreign Minister Qian Qichen warned the United States to stay out of the dispute.

"Taiwan is a part of China and not a protectorate of the United States," Qichen told reporters.

"If foreign forces invade Taiwan... we will not sit idly by."

He said that China wants peace. Christopher did not say how the U.S. would respond if China were to attack Taiwan, or how close to Taiwan the battle group would go. The Seventh Fleet said all the vessels were in international waters.

Jason Hu, a Taiwanese government spokesman, said the U.S. decision to send warships toward Taiwan was "to maintain peace, and not to intervene" in the dispute.

"We are not hoping for war, so any acts conducive to peace will be welcome," he said.

La Plata Native Nabs Most-Wanted Fugitive

A man who helped capture Czechoslovakia's most-wanted fugitive Wednesday in Prague was born and raised in La Plata, Mo.

Donald Royce, 63, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Royce, graduated from La Plata High School in 1952, according to Bill Bullock of La Plata. Bullock said his wife attended school with Royce and described Royce as a mild-mannered.

Royce, a Washington University professor and architect who lives in St. Louis, visited Prague last week with his friend, Frank Ford, 46, of Oak Park, Ill., to see the city's beautiful buildings.

They rented a ground-floor apartment in the city's fashionable riverfront district. At about midnight Wednesday, they were awakened by the sound of breaking glass.

The two found an intruder in the hallway waving a gun and yelling.

"I told the man we didn't speak Czech," Royce recalled.

The gunman wrapped his arms around the two Americans and a 16-year-old youth, son of the apartment's owner. The gunman pointed a gun at their heads and marched them from room to room. He forced all three into a bathtub.

The gunman peeked inside closets, searching for police, he yelled. He was sure he was going to be gassed.

After the 16-year-old escaped condition of anonymity, said the Iraqis later told the Egyptians to inform the court that the matter — the second such standoff between the Iraqis and U.N. inspectors in four days — had been resolved. Egypt represents the Arab countries on the 15-member council.

The diplomat said the United Nations was trying to confirm the Iraqi claim with its staff in the Iraqi capital but in Baghdad, it appeared the situation was unclear.

State Vote For Buchanan A Shock, Says Adair GOP Committee Chair

Adair County Republicans were reacting with shock today after learning Saturday's statewide Missouri caucuses gave Pat Buchanan from runner status.

"I couldn't believe it," said Adair County Central Committee chair Helen Collins.

Collins said she has learned that Buchanan had the support of Ross Perot followers, mostly in St. Louis and Boone County.

Dole carried the 1st, 5th and 6th Congressional Districts and Buchanan had a majority in the 2nd District.

There were incomplete tallies in the other districts and state GOP director Pat Fusselman said it will be later this week before final figures are known.

Uncommitted delegates were ahead in the 3rd, 4th and 8th Districts; Keyes was leading slightly

Stock Prices Push Higher After Friday Sell-Off

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock prices pushed higher in a sign of resilience this morning, the first trading session since a furious sell-off caused investors to worry that the $172-year-old bull market was dying.

The Dow Jones industrial average was 35.04 points higher at 5,505.49 by noon, despite being hurt earlier in the trading session by a government report that showed an unexpected improvement in new home sales.

It was surprisingly positive economic news, the creation of 705,000 jobs in February, that triggered Friday's sell-off that sent the stock market's most widely watched index tumbling 171.24 points for its third-biggest point drop ever.

Bond prices, which suffered their worst performance in almost 20 years Friday, firmed this morning as well.

"The market is proving this morning that it's trying to go higher," said William Lefevre, senior market analyst at the brokerage firm Ehrenkrantz, King Nussbaum Inc. "In other words, Friday was not the end of a bull market and the beginning of something bad."

"The situation at the site is very dynamic," a U.N. source told The Associated Press from Baghdad. The source, who also spoke on condition of anonymity, reported the U.N. inspectors are still around the site. He declined to give any information about the facility or say why the inspectors wanted to enter it.

Last Friday, Iraqi officials refused to allow U.N. inspectors to enter a Ministry of Irrigation Building in Baghdad as part of the effort to verify Iraq's compliance with the U.N. sanctions in the aftermath of the Gulf War.

The Iraqis agreed to allow the inspectors inside only after an 18-hour standoff and a demand by the council to admit the team. Earlier today, Charles Duelfer,

"It's one of those blips you get from time to time," he said.
The stock market's retreat Friday was not altogether surprising — the Dow average alone surged more than 30 percent last year and was up 10 percent this year before the violent sell-off. Predictions of a pullback have been rampant.

The Dow's behavior almost immediately brought comparisons to the crash of 1987, when a 108-point decline on Friday, Oct. 16, preceded the 508-point meltdown on Oct. 19 — Black Monday.

Wall Street analysts said over the weekend they didn't believe another drop meltdown was looming — but they really weren't certain what the week would bring.

Muriel Siebert, president of the discount brokerage firm Muriel Siebert & Co., said her customers were buying stock at twice the rate they were selling during the first few hours of trading today.

"They seem to be buying the stocks that they probably wanted to buy that were too high," she said. "Bottom line: The individuals, I think they're pretty cool. They didn't panic. They didn't do panic. It's wonderful."

Trading today began as a volatile affair.
The Dow average opened off a few points but then rallied about 30 points. It tumbled on the government report showing new home sales jumped an unexpected 4.2 percent in January despite poor weather. The Dow was down about 25 points before recovering.

"Now they're extra-nervous," Lefevre said. "Whatever piece of information you give them, they're going to react negatively."

These days, good economic news tends to mean bad news for the market.
Precipitating the Friday sell-off here was the report showing the biggest monthly job gain in the nation since 1983. Traders dumped stocks and bonds on the belief that signs of economic strength would keep the Federal Reserve from cutting interest rates in the near future.

Expectations of lower rates dermanned the powerful rise in financial markets that pushed stocks up last year. Lower rates help boost corporate profits and make stocks and bonds more attractive than other interest-bearing investments like savings accounts.

One thing market analysts worked to decipher over the weekend was the nature of Friday's drop. Was it simply a blip or the beginning of a "correction," a loosely defined term meaning a retreat in prices that allows an overall advance to continue?

Wall Street generally defines a correction as a decline in stock prices of 10 percent or more. The Dow's drop Friday to 5,470.45 represented just a 3 percent drop. For comparison's sake, the Oct. 19, 1987, crash took the Dow industrials down about 23 percent.

With 70 of 121 sites reporting, representing 77 percent of the Missouri delegate count, Pat Buchanan emerged the top candidate with 352 votes. Dole was second with 240 votes. The uncommitted group was third with 207 votes. Alan Keyes had 85 votes, and Steve Forbes had nine votes.

The 9th Congressional District, of which Adair County is a part, also voted for Buchanan with 43 percent of delegates reported. The vote is as follows: Buchanan, 22; uncommitted, 18; Alan Keyes, 7; Dole, 7, and Forbes, 1.

John Brunner, Buchanan's state director, said the results showed that Missourians still want to talk about the issues and are not ready to feed the nomination to Dole.

By the middle of this week, Dole hopes to have swept the state. Tuesday's primary election had roughly 700 convention delegates; Buchanan has just 62 heading into those contests.

Two-Vehicle Clark County Accident Causes Five Injuries

By Cassandra Lindsay
Five people were injured in a two-vehicle accident Saturday in Clark County near the Illinois border.

The accident occurred 12 miles south of Wayland, Mo., at the intersection of U.S. Highway 61 and Missouri Route 2.

A pickup truck driven by Ronald Verdugt, 40, of St. Patrick, Mo., was eastbound at the intersection when it pulled into the path of a van driven by Sally Giebenhaine, 17, of Maple Lake, Minn.

Verdugt sustained moderate injuries and was taken to Blessing Hospital in Quincy. He was treated and released. Giebenhaine sustained minor injuries and was treated at the Keokuk Area Hospital in Keokuk and released.

Three passengers in the van also sustained minor injuries. Laura Stelter, 19, of Snake Trail, Minn., Molly Mennenga, 18, of Huntley, Minn., and Denise Fetzer, 18, of Colome, S.D., were treated and released from Keokuk Area Hospital.

Dear Ann Landers: I must write about the letter from Anonymous in Raleigh, N.C., who asked if he should send a card to his parents on the anniversary of his brother's death. From your response, it is obvious, Ann, that you have never had the misfortune of losing a child. I have. Our 21-year-old son, a college senior, was killed in a car accident. It happened two years, two months and 22 days ago, and believe me, the pain never goes away.

Your advice not to send a card was wrong. The parents of that lad ache every minute of every day, and they probably wonder why their son never mentions his brother. Please take back what you said and urge "Anonymous" to send his parents a card or flowers, as well as taking them out to dinner, as you suggested. It will nothing upset memories, which is what you feared. The memories are already there, Ann. They will be so pleased to know that their son has not been forgotten.

Our favorite family members and friends are the ones who recall some amusing incident involving our son and make casual remarks such as "Joel really loved to nap, didn't he?" I remember, because I could sleep anywhere. Just the mention of his name reaffirms the fact that he blessed this Earth.

Please, Ann, tell your readers that if they know someone who has lost a child NOT to be afraid to mention that child's name. The best thing they can say is "Please tell me about him (or her)." The parents will have so many stories to tell, their ears will probably fall off in the love to talk about our beloved Lee, and there is so much we would like to say, but no one ever asks. Tell your readers to try. They'll be surprised. — Rose Sahli, Carmel, Calif.

licans won a landslide victory to take full control of Congress for the first time in 40 years.

Dole, the Senate majority leader who has moved far ahead of his rivals for the 1996 Republican presidential nomination, raised the Cuba issue during an appearance last week before a Cuban-American audience in Miami.

A week before the Florida presidential primary, Clinton and Clinton ought to direct the attorney general to seek indictments against the Cuban pilots who shot down the planes flown by Cuban exiles.

"In a Dole administration, we will not cozy up to Fidel Castro," he said, suggesting that some other administration was doing just that with the Cuban leader.

"Talking about about Fidel gets votes," said Ambrose. "It doesn't do anything to get rid of Fidel. It doesn't do anything for anything except the votes."

Led by Dole and Gingrich, the Republican-run Congress has tried to put its mark on U.S. foreign policy.

Gingrich has advocated reversing a quarter-century of bipartisan policy toward China by recognizing Taiwan as an independent country. U.S. policy as established by the 1972 Republic of China, but his ability to hold that position is uncertain.

Clinton faces a re-election challenge just two years after Republican meetings immediately.

In the effort to efficiently meet the needs of our seniors, we have taken measures to ensure that the department itself will remain efficient. Included in the measure are limitations to how large the department can grow. Currently, the Division of Aging employs 700 people, legislation that elevates the division to a department caps the number of employees at 725.

Elevation of the Division of Aging to a department status is the next step we need to take to ensure that our seniors have a direct voice to state government. A Department of Aging will ensure direct access to the governor on aging issues.

By creating a Department of Aging, Missouri will be joining 12 other states who have already taken this positive step. The neighboring states of Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska and Nebraska have already addressed the concerns of their senior citizens by creating a Department of Aging.

Missouri's population age 60 and over stood at 961,000 in 1990, or 13.5 percent of the total population. In the percentage of elderly to the total state population. The elderly population is projected to grow well more than a million in Missouri by 2020. Clearly, we need a Department of Aging to ensure that aging issues would receive the visibility and priority the growing population of Missouri seniors will demand.

Public transportation tops the list of senior citizens' concerns. On Feb. 14, I met with more than 120 senior constituents visiting from the 18th district. They were in town for Transportation Day '96, sponsored by the Missouri Public Transit Association. Public transportation is a complex issue because public transportation for rural Missouri means disability transportation and OATS. Reliable public transportation affords our seniors the ability to live in their homes while ensuring that they have a way to get to their doctors, pharmacists and grocery stores.

We have to remember that public transportation is not just an urban commuter concern. It is both a rural concern and a senior citizen concern. Public transportation is a perfect example of a senior issue that needs more attention, the perfect example of why we need a Department of Aging, to give our seniors a powerful forum to address their concerns.

Cuba, China Endure As Political Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) — Bob Dole declares that as president he'd never "cozy up to Fidel Castro." House Speaker Newt Gingrich says that maybe the time has come for the United States to grant diplomatic recognition to Taiwan. In the midst of an election campaign, that sort of rhetoric is commonplace, particularly when applied to Cuba and China, two of the most enduring hot-button issues in American politics.

A measure of their staying power is the fact that anyone is talking about them at all in a presidential campaign in which issues largely stop at the water's edge.

Talk backs, flat and otherwise, is a byword of the 1996 campaign. Or line up in favor of family values and against Washington. Debate health care and welfare reform.

But foreign policy? Republicans and Democrats remember that President Clinton's winning strategy four years ago was to keep in mind that it was "the economy, stupid."

With the collapse of the Soviet Union, voters no longer worry about whether a candidate is tough enough to stand up to Moscow, a stock issue that has faded from the campaign.

But with considerable help from their communist rulers, Cuba and China, but his ability to hold that position is uncertain.

Friends, Fans Pay Tribute To Comedian George Burns

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Outside George Burns' Beverly Hills home, some fans left a pot of white dishes, a cigar and a letter that read "Go on for the road. We'll miss you."

It was one of many heartfelt tributes to the man who spent more than 90 years in show business making people laugh. "He's one of the constants," said Cathi Ciriaci of Butler, Pa., who gathered with fans Sunday outside Mami's Chinese Theatre, where Burns left imprints of his hands, feet and cigar. "I'm glad he made it to 100."

Burns died Saturday at home, seven weeks after his 100th birthday. The cigar-smoking comic's career spanned vaudeville, radio, movies, television, nightclubs, best-selling books and recordings. Burns was 80 when he won an Academy Award in 1975 for "The Sunshine Boys" — then the oldest actor to win an Oscar.

"There'll never be another era like George Burns' 100 years," said Carol Channing, a friend for 40 years who often performed with him. "It was hard to imagine show business before George Burns and it's hard to imagine it without him."

At 98, Burns was still delighting audiences with his perfectly timed quips, many of them at his own expense. ("I'm doing better with 18-year-old women now than when I was 18.") Burns eagerly awaited his long-promised 100th birthday shows in Las Vegas, with tickets selling out long in advance.

But declining health ended his performing career after he was injured in a fall in July 1994 and the birthday shows were canceled. He was unable to attend a gala in his honor a few days before his 100th birthday because of the flu. He did put out a statement, saying, "What do you give a man who's been so blessed? Another year? I don't know. I'll miss you."

Throughout the weekend, fans gathered to celebrate Burns' dry wit and knowing smile. They festooned his star on Hollywood's Walk of Fame with flowers, candles and a wreath. And alongside his Mami's Theatre are sidewalk imprints, somebody left the anonymous note reading: "To the only 'God' I'll ever know, I'll miss you."

At a crossroads in his career, Burns developed his own act, starring in TV specials and playing Las Vegas with such discoveries as Ann-Margret and Bobby Darin. His popularity soared in the 1970s, touching off a string of movies, books and sold-out nightclub appearances.

He played the title deity in 1977's "Oh, God." It was a hit, and the two sequels that followed made Burns a favorite with yet another generation. A private funeral was scheduled for Tuesday. Burns is to be buried beside his former wife.

His manager, Irving Fein, said a public memorial service would be held in a month or two. "Then all the celebrities can come," Fein said.

a daughter Dec 1926 and was divorced sometime after that. After her second marriage in 1944 they moved to Quincy, IL. It was stated in her obit she had lived in Quincy 40 years, so she would have been in Quincy since 1934. She had no children by 2nd marriage. However her husband did have two daughters by a previous marriage.

Pearl's only daughter hadn't been in touch with her for many years, but sometime after her death she did contact her Aunt Lea LaMasters and was told of her mothers death. She was living in California at the time.

They ran a grocery store in Quincy, for many years which was located at 7th & Spring and they also owned an apartment house located 835 N 5th ST. where they lived.

Pearl developed cancer and wouldn't seek help. She took to her bed and just waited to die. Alex waited on her even though he had a heart attack and wasn't in the best of health himself. She was sick for over a year and had lost over 100 pounds before her death.

CHILD 1 - Roma Dee (Diana) ROBINSON-322

Roma Dee married H.D. Field and they live 13971 Gershon Place, Santa Anna, CA 92705 by 1982 when she started writing to Aunt Lee. Still there 1993. Phone disk listed Harold W. Field at that address as listed Diana Field.

I wrote her after Aunt Lea gave me her address but she never would answer my letters. She told Aunt Lea she didn't like it that I put her in the Lowe Book and the info wasn't right but I only put in what Aunt Lee told me and from open records that were available to me. I had written to her before I had the book printed and told her why I wanted update info, which gave her the chance to let me know she didn't want included in the book.

Roma Dee as we knew her went by Diana in Chicago and also in California when she was writing to Aunt Lea.

She was married first to Mr Sugg then married Robert Hill Sr. 2nd according to Marriage record Palmyra, MO 1943. Md 3rd H.D. Field (Harold W?) after 1974.

I didn't locate this until after she had died so no way of knowing for sure.

Apr 1926, papers recorded in Macon Co. MO in regards to some land dispute list her as Pearl Lowe Thompson, stated she was married but a minor, under the age of 18 so they appointed a guardian for her to act in her behalf in reference to some land in Hildalgo Co., TX which was owned by Levi Thompson, apparently.

Married the first time Aug 1925, she would have been age 15 that Feb. She had a daughter Dec 1926 and was divorced sometime after that. After her second marriage in 1944 they moved to Quincy, IL. It was stated in her obit she had lived in Quincy 40 years, so she would have been in Quincy since 1934. She had no children by 2nd marriage. However her husband did have two daughters by a previous marriage.

Pearl's only daughter hadn't been in touch with her for many years, but sometime after her death she did contact her Aunt Lea LaMasters and was told of her mothers death. She was living in California at the time.

They ran a grocery store in Quincy, for many years which was located at 7th & Spring and they also owned an apartment house located 835 N 5th ST. where they lived.

Pearl developed cancer and wouldn't seek help. She took to her bed and just waited to die. Alex waited on her even though he had a heart attack and wasn't in the best of health himself. She was sick for over a year and had lost over 100 pounds before her death.

Double Wedding Here Includes Gale Lowe

Oct 25 1942
A double wedding took place in the First Christian Church in Kirksville Sunday at high noon when Gale A. Lowe and Miss Eleanor Thompson, both of Rock Island, Ill., were married with the single ring ceremony and Robert B. Straw of Rock Island, and Miss Lora C. Winchell, Davenport, Ia., were married with the double ring ceremony. Both ceremonies were performed by the pastor, Dr. L. V. Freeman, in the presence of the congregation which had been asked to remain for the weddings.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Straw, members of the church, but who are not related to Robert Straw, invited the two couples to their home at 315 North Florence Street for dinner, and the invitation was accepted.

Mr. Lowe formerly lived in the vicinity of Millard, but now is employed in Rock Island.

|                | Mom and I visited with Aunt Eleanor in Jun 1998 and was able to visit with Mervin and Lorraine Lowe also. This was the 2nd time we had went there since Uncle Gale had passed away.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|                | Mom and I planned to have a surprise birthday party for Eleanor 24 Aug 2003 but ended up not being too much of surprise but everyone did come to the house after we went out for lunch to "The Cedar Room", Mom, Charlie and myself and Eleanor. Charlie had come up for the day and we had come up on Sat and stayed till Tuesday. All but Sharon and couple grandkids weren't there. 18 in all, so was real nice.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

|                | Visited with Gary and Janet 23-25 Aug 2003, as had come into town to have a surprise birthday party for his mother and they came into the house on Sunday and then we went out to their house for supper on Monday. They have done a lot of work on their house inside and out and built a 2 car garage and also built a wood working shop next to garage that was larger then the garage. Gary is great with wood. He builds a lot of things. He built a bench for the kitchen and also their kitchen table and makes little things also. Not sure where he got that from as don't think his father was that handy with wood. They had Kelly's 3 children with them, Brittany, Jackson and Tyler so got to visit with them also. |
|                | Was the first time all the family were together since his dad died in 1992, except for sister Sharon, she wasn't able to come.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |

2003 She is living in Des Moines and just got married last couple months (June?) (Aug 2003). Mother listed 22 May 2003 they got married so will have to check the date for sure. 3rd husband died of throat cancer 18 Feb 2005. Don't know if he had been married before as obit didn't list children surviving, just 2 sisters and a brother. Said he died at the Iowa Methodist Hospital in Des Moines, IA.

Jeffery had been sick since birth, but is getting better if he watches what he eats. He was allergic to a lot of things. (1992) Now he can eat about anything he wants and is doing pretty good. He is still hyperactive but is getting along in school better then he was.

My mother and I had tried to plan a surprise birthday party for Sharon's mother and was hoping she would be able to come and apparently she had told her brother Richard that she was but ended up not so don't know what happened. All the family was there except her and couple grandkids. Aug 24 2003 in Humboldt, IA.

She was a member of the Lake Lutheran Church near Renwick for many years.

She worked at one of the churches in Renwick doing their cleaning for many years also.

1992 she sold the house in Renwick and bought a house in Humboldt, since she didn't drive it would be easier for her to get around in town.

Her sister Manda Thompson Lowe was married to Gale's older brother Floyd.

Mom and I visited with Aunt Eleanor in Jun 1998 and was able to visit with Mervin and Lorraine Lowe also. This was the 2nd time we had went there since Uncle Gale had passed away.

Mom and I planned to have a surprise birthday party for Eleanor 24 Aug 2003 but ended up not being too much of surprise but everyone did come to the house after we went out for lunch to "The Cedar Room", Mom, Charlie and myself and Eleanor. Charlie had come up for the day and we had come up on Sat and stayed till Tuesday. All but Sharon and couple grandkids weren't there. 18 in all, so was real nice.

CHILD 1 - Gary Eugene LOWE-630

Gary entered the Air Force Jun 4, 1964. He went to Lackland for 3 months from June to Aug then went to Amarillo for 3 months from Aug to Oct. Then went to Big Springs, TX Nov 1964 for 3 1/2 years till he was discharged from service on Jun 5, 1968.

Returned to Humboldt Co. IA and went to work for the REC Electric Co. He and Janet were divorced 13 Oct 1977 and he married 2nd to Jannell and help her raise her two children. He and 2nd wife live at Rural Humboldt, IA.

Gary had to quite work few years ago and so is on disability so he does woodworking to keep busy besides does help his cousins wife on her farm when he can. Jannell still works at the church and they babysit their grandkids a lot.

Visited with Gary and Janell 23-25 Aug 2003, as had come into town to have a surprise birthday party for his mother and they came into the house on Sunday and then we went out to their house for supper on Monday. They have done a lot of work on their house inside and out and built a 2 car garage and also built a wood working shop next to garage that was larger then the garage. Gary is great with wood. He builds a lot of things. He built a bench for the kitchen and also their kitchen table and makes little things also. Not sure where he got that from as don't think his father was that handy with wood. They had Kelly's 3 children with them, Brittany, Jackson and Tyler so got to visit with them also.

Was the first time all the family were together since his dad died in 1992, except for sister Sharon, she wasn't able to come.

Their address now is 1964 Juniper Ave, Humboldt, IA and phone # is 332-4091.

CHILD 2 - Sharon Elaine LOWE-631

She had lived in Eagle Grove for many years but in 1991 she moved to Pella, IA. Received an update on her family June 1994 and she was living at 414 University, Pella, IA 50210-1953. She sent a picture of Jeff also taken 1993.

She was divorced from her 1st husband in 1977 and divorced her 2nd husband before 1982 when her 3rd child was born.

Her address in Eagle Grove, IA was 420 N. Washington (1990)
2003 She is living in Des Moines and just got married last couple months (Aug 2003).

Jeffery had been sick since birth, but is getting better if he watches what he eats. He was allergic to a lot of things. (1992) Now he can eat about anything he wants and is doing pretty good. He is still hyperactive but is getting along

Homeless

By JOANNE WALKER

Free-lance writer

I read a contemporary novel recently that brought the reality of homelessness into my realm of understanding.

How precious "home" and all it encompasses. What a comfort to know one can always go home. It signifies safety, it is a refuge, a sanctuary. Home is a shelter from the winds and waves of life.

Reflections

Reflections

The carpets may be worn and the furniture may no longer have its original luster and sheen, but the familiar bestows a quiet hug. The treasures of the years bring security. Home is roots, home is an anchor. Home makes us what we are.

Sometimes disasters teach us very important lessons. We learn what it is like to lose our home to a tornado or a flood, a hurricane

| Notes HUSBAND - Gale (Pat) Edwin PorterHe went by name of Pat, according to wife Sharon. He had throat cancer before they were married and had been treated for it but it must have come back as that is what they said he died of. They had a memorial service on the 26th of Feb and he was cremated and not sure if ashes buried anywhere or not.Sharon's mother told us about his death the last of April 2005. Checked Des Moines newspaper "Des Moines Register" and located a short obituary, in fact there was one on 23 Feb and also one on 24 Feb. Neither gave too much info. 23 Feb 2005: Gale E. Porter"Gale E. Porter, 63, passed away on Friday, February 18, 2005.
